Shabbat Shalom Y'all

A special Shabbat celebration enriched with the culture and traditions of the American South

Friday, November 7, 2008

6:30 pm – 8:00 p.m. Erev Shabbat Service

A Kabbalat service with a Southern accent.

Learn about Southern Jews from our distinguished guest speaker, Dr. Stuart Rockoff, Director of the History Department at the Goldring/Woldenberg Institute of Southern Jewish Life and the Museum of the Southern Jewish Experience in Jackson, Mississippi. Join us for this fascinating look into the history and lives of Jews of the American South, who, although small in number, have made a significant mark on the communities in which they have lived.

8:00 pm – 9:00 - Shalom Y'all Dinner

Come and enjoy dinner and dessert, kosher style, a la the deep south.

9:00 - Southern Schmooze

Let's continue the conversation by hearing Dr. Rockoff and members of our congregation share their stories about growing up Jewish in the South.

6:30-8:00 pm – Junior Congregation.

A service for the kids, run by kids. The Junior Congregation's own Shabbat pizza dinner is followed by a musical, interactive program for children, ages 8 to 12.

6:30-9:00 pm – Shabbat Kinder Care

Food, crafts, songs, stories and fun to introduce our youngest members and guests to the joy of Shabbat. For children, ages 3 to 7.

The Village Temple thanks the Cantor Family for their generous sponsorship of this special event.

In addition, we would like to thank the Neipris Geffner family for their contribution to tonight's Oneg.
